Eleanor put those boots back on
Franz Ferdinand

INTRO: (Ready, mate?   Yeah.)

G Bm G Bm G Bm G Bm G Bm

VERSE:

C                   Bm
Eleanor put those boots back on
          C               Bm
Kick the heels into the Brooklyn dirt
   C            Bm            F#dim
I know it isn t dignified to run

           G           D
But if you run, you can run to the
C           Bm
Coney Island roller coaster
G          D
Ride to the highest point
    C               Bm
And leap across the filthy water
C               Bm                      F
Leap until the gulf stream s brought you down
      G         Bm
Mmmmm-hmmmm
```

CHORUS:

G                           Bm
I could be there when you land
G                           Bm      C
I could be there when you laaaaaaand...
```

INSTRUMENTAL BREAK:

Gm C Gm C Gm Em Am Em D

VERSE:
   C              Bm
So Eleanor take a Greenpoint three-point(???)
C            Bm
Turn towards the hidden sun
C            Bm                      F#dim
You know you are so elegant when you run

         G           D
Oh if you run, you can run

         C                      Bm
To that statue with the dictionary
G              D
Climb to her fingernail
     C                  Bm
And leap yeah! take an atmospheric
C                      Bm                    F
Leap and let the jet stream set you down
        G          Bm
Mmmmm-hmmmm

CHORUS: (slightly different this time)

G Bm G Bm

G                              Bm
I could be there when you land
G                              Bm
I could be there when you land
G                            Bm    C    Gm
I could be there when you laaaaaaannd

INSTRUMENTAL BREAK:

C Gm C Gm C Gm C Em Am Em D

ENDING:

    G                    D
So Eleanor put those boots back on
G                     D             C
Put those boots back on the ground and run
            Em
Come on over here
C            Em
Come on over here
C          G
Come on over here

(And end on a nice C chord)
