

Hallam Foe Dandelion Blow
Franz Ferdinand

Hello Franzy people of the world. This is just how I play an accousticky version it with chords.

Verses:

C Gm
Breeze blows from rooftops to trees
Am
Sensation
Dm F
wonder in your imagination (Dm) C
wondering where she can be

Same as above:

it feels so cold as you go when you leave you re a dandelion blown on the breeze wondering where you could be

Em
A wisp at the window
Dm Am Em C
she whispers and into the air we fly
Dm Em Am Em C
so fly oh dandelion fly Am Dm
yes it s time
Em Am
it s time for you to fly

During that whole woaah part: Am Em F Dm X 2 and then hold Em until the guitar part starts like a verse almost:

C F G F

Em Dm
You watch them for hours Am Gm
from slates and clock towers
F C
the lives below
Dm
but your life is others Am F Gm C
of lovers and mothers oh wooh wooh

Then there s this bit breeze blows from rooftops to your destination trapped in your imagination she s all you can see                      which is like a verse

Em

black loch water you miss her

oh god how you miss her so

hallam foe      oh dandelion blow

Dm   Em                      Am

yes it s time dandelion fly

Hope it s somewhat correct / useful / enjoyable haha
