

Stand On The Horizon
Franz Ferdinand

C Am C Am
How can I tell you I was wrong?
C Am C Am
How can I tell you I was wrong?
C Am
When I am the proudest man
C Am-C-Am
Ever born

C Am
I stand on the horizon
C Am
I want to step across it with you
C
But when the sun s this low
Am
Everything s cold
C Am
On the line of the horizon

C Am
Come to me, Oh won t you come to me Oh
C Am
Come to me, Oh won t you come to me Oh
C Am C
Come to me, Oh won t you come to me
Am C
Oh won t you come to me

C Am C Am
How can I tell you I was wrong?
C Am C Am
How can I tell you I was wrong?
C Am
When I am the cruellest man
C Am
you have known

C Am
that you ever known
C Am
that you ever known
C Am
that you ever known

C Am
I stand on the horizon
C Am
I want to step across it with you

But when the sun s this low

Am
Everything s cold

C Am
On the line of the horizon

G C
In South Shields Metro station

Em C
heard Marsden Rock was breaking

The North Sea shaking

Em
All that we know

D#m
To make us see the point of

Bb
living is to live

Am C
So won t you come to me

Am C
won t you come to me yeah

Am C
come to me

Am C
won t you come to me yeah

Am...

C-Am-C-Am-C-Am

The North Sea sings

Am
Won t you come to me baby?

The North Sea singing

Am
Won t you come to me?
