G D G
When you re scoring with a chick in a disco bar,
C Em
Take her home in your hairy little car,
G B7 Em C
Then you find you went to school with her ma and pa,
G D
You re the oldest swinger in town.

G D G
When you won t look in the mirror in the light of day,
C Em
Swear you ve dyed it when your hair turns grey,
G B7 Em C
When you zip up your trousers and your belly s in the way,
G D G
You re the oldest swinger in town.

C* G
Here you come and there you go,
A D
White wheels, spots, and a stereo,
G B7 Em C
But the engine is clapped and the driver also,
G D G
You re the oldest swinger in town.

G D G
The barber takes a little less time each week,
C Em
The kids don t understand a word you speak,
G B7 Em C
When you walk into a disco and they offer you a seat,
G D
You re the oldest swinger in town.

G D G
You prefer a pint of mild to Bacardi and Coke,
C Em
The sounds are too loud and there s too much smoke,
G B7 Em C
You d like another dance, but you re afraid you ll have a stroke,
G D G

Figured this one out by ear in honour of me bruvvah Pom! ;)
(Good laugh fer an open mic night)

RIP Fred.
