Superman
Fred Wedlock

This is an amazing song performed by Fred Wedlock, one of the greatest British comedy folk singers that nobody ever heard about.

Speech at beginning - G

            C             G
I d like to think I was Superman
C             G
Giving all the world a hand
C       G         C
Oh what a Superman I d be
G         C           G
I d like to think I was invisible
C       G
I d be invincible
C       G           C
Invinci-visible thats me
```

-- Chorus

          G     C      G     C
Ah but I m very - un-extraordinary
        D
And i ll never be any of the things I dream about
                          C
when I m alone and lights are out
      G    C    G
I m just me
```

-- Verse 2

I d like to be Mr Universe
Defeating all the worst people in the universe for free
I d like to be a multi millionaire giving money everywhere
saving a place up there for me
```

-- Chorus

          G     C      G     C
Ah but I m very - un-extraordinary
```

```
And i ll never be any of the things I dream about
                                  C
when I m alone and lights are out
          G     C     G
I m just me
```

-- Verse 1 (repeated)

I d like to think I was Superman
Giving all the world a hand
Oh what a Superman I d be
I d like to think I was invisible
I d be invincible
Invinci-visible thats me
```

-- Chorus

            G      C        G      C
Ah but I m very - un-extraordinary
          D
And i ll never be any of the things I dream about
                                   C
when I m alone and lights are out
          G    C    G
I m just me, only me
          G    C      G
I m just me, I m just me
```
