Id Rather Be Blind Freddie King

Cool song. the solos are fairly easy to work out, i figure. if you want a tab, ask. good luck people.

G... (intro)

D7 G Well I travel the higway I make many scenes A7 D Being lost in darkness, I ve been out on the streets I feel so unhappy, sometimes I wanted to die, Lord Em G р But if I have your sweet sweet love, I know I ll survive This whole world is turning, like wheels on a train D Α I hold on to each moment, that it won t come again I m not educated, but there s one thing I know Em That I d rather be blind, than to see you go Em Bm I thank god for strong woman, who knows how to be weak C And it makes me feel so good, every time she speaks \mathbf{Em} Βm Oh the revelation, the revelation in her smile Α7 D7 It feels so much like in heaven, when I m with her for just a little while G So don t leave me darling, no, whatever you do A7 D

When I m standing beside you, I know we ll get through G C7 and there is only one thing, babe, that I want you to know, Em D that I d rather be blind, than to see you go.
