And I'm scared to engage

```
Knockin
Freddie Stroma
[Verse]
Lost in a world that rattles my brain
I'm cleaning up my life from the mess you made
Am
Oh, oh
Woah, oh oh oh.
My soul's in debt but my bills are paid
I'd give anything just to make an escape
Αm
Oh, oh
Woah, oh oh oh.
[Chorus]
So you can keep knockin, knockin, knockin
Baby you're knockin but there ain't no way I'm ever letting you in
Not again
So keep on knockin, knocking, knocking
                                                                 Am
But baby you're better off walking cause I ain't gonna let you in
Never again
No, not again
[Verse]
So, so long honey,
There's no debate
We lived in a dream and faced a fate
Oh, oh
Woah, oh oh oh.
```

```
So I stare at the stage
And pour out my heart to the blank of a page
Oh, oh
Woah, oh oh oh.
[Chorus]
So you can keep knockin, knockin, knockin
                                                                  Am
Baby you're knockin but there ain't no way I'm ever letting you in
Not again
So keep on knockin, knocking, knocking
                                                                 Am
But baby you're better off walking cause I ain't gonna let you in
Never again
[Bridge]
I went out on a limb again
Guess I had to lose to win
I was too confused to know which way to turn
She could be a millionaire
Be a model, I don't care
Cause baby there's nobody home
Nobody's home!
[Chorus]
So you can keep knockin, knockin, knockin
                                                                  Am
Baby you're knockin but there ain't no way I'm ever letting you in
Not again
So keep on knockin, knocking, knocking
                                                                 Αm
But baby you're better off walking cause I ain't gonna let you in
Never again
No, not again
