#43 on SWAN Records in 1959.

INTRO: C G7

#1.

C

Way down south in Okefenokee the sun goes down and the air is cool.

F

There s a real neat beat traveling over the water..

C

G7

it s making me a dancing fool.

CHORUS:

C

G7

Okefenokee, Okefenokee..choo-wah, choo-wah, choo-wah.

#2.

C

Out on the lake down in Okefenokee The Riverboat is where the cats all go.

C

Stomping their feet and clapping in rhythm..it s wilder

G7

than a rodeo.

CHORUS:

C

G7

Okefenokee, Okefenokee..choo-wah, choo-wah, choo-wah.

(INTERLUDE:) C C7 F C G7 F C G7

#3.

C

On the deck of the boat down in Okefenokee I met a Georgia

Peach who was raring to go.

C

She danced up a storm with her pom-poms booming..til someone hollered, fire below!

G7

#4.

C#

Well, the boat went down in Okefenokee while the cats and chicks went for the door.

F#

C#

My baby and I stole a kiss on the water..I kissed her all the way to shore.

G#7

CHORUS:

C#

G#7

Okefenokee, Okefenokee..choo-wah, choo-wah, choo-wah.

OUTRO:

C#

Come on, Georgia, wooo!..let s party, sugar.

F#

C#

Yeah, bye-bye..so, long for now, baby.

G#

F#

C#

G#7

Come on, Georgia..let s get outta here, baby.

C#

Come on, spin it, baby..come on, honey..(Fade.)

A fifties smash from Kraziekhat.
