

Boxing Night
Frightened Rabbit

Standard Tuning, live versions currently available sound to be Capo I

Might just be my preference, but Play D as 554030, sounds better than xx0232 or 200232

G 320033
Em 022000
C 332010
D 552030

| : G Em C D : |

G
It s boxing night
 Em
I celebrate in style
 C
with boxer shorts and spirits
 D
floor litteed with ghosts of bottles passed

G
There s a naked hush
 Em
clothed only with breath and a pulse
 C
of a heart that is kicking
 D
as though it is desperate to be born

G
and I m hostage blind
 Em
deaf to the din outside
 C
Good Glasgow could burn to it s bones (timber?) tonight
 D
and I d barely blink an eye

G Em C D

G
well the clock just stopped
 Em
put that on my fucking headstone (you can cut that into my headstone)
 C
won t something move so I stop

D

staring a hole into the phone

C

you can get me at home

D

I'll be drinking to death

C

just me and these walls

D

and a beaten up chair

G

on boxing day

(G)

this is boxing night

Em

and someone lost an eye

C

well I swear I've lost the last drop

D

of whatever kept me awake, alive

G

we fell in the Forth from a heavy right hook

Em

to a blushed and swollen face

C

and in a single blow it's murdered

D

and now it takes years to waste away

G

well I can't call you all night any more

Em

I can't call you full stop

C

though you know you can call me up any time

D

call me whatever the fuck you want

C

you can get me at home

D

I'll be drinking to death

C

just me and these walls

D

and a beaten up chair

C

you can get me at home

D

I ll be drinking to death

C

just me and these walls

D

and my beaten up chair

G

on boxing day

| : (G) Em C D :| Repeat A few times; end on G