

Home From War
Frightened Rabbit

G D Em Bm F#m

G

Here I stand like a soldier home from war

D

With nothing to do but remember the shutter of bombs

Em

I m sure it never quite goes away

C

It never quite goes away, oh

G

Here I sit like a beginner beginning again

D

And all those fuck-ups counted for nothing cause nothing makes sense

Em

And I am never quite fully awake

C

And never completely asleep, yeah

G D G

Iâ€™m walking around like a soldier who s home from war

D

Lost in the foreign landscape I used to know

Em

Will I ever feel like I belong?

C

Will I ever feel like I belong anywhere?

G D Em Bm F#m C G

Well, here I lie like a lover who isn t in love

Who stares at the cracks in the ceiling six feet above

Em

Bm

And who knows just how it feels to buckle beneath the weight

Em

And there s only so much you can take

C

There s only so much you can take

D

I might never be normal again

I might never be normal again

Never be normal again

Oh, never be normal again

Em

But who cares?

I ask, who cares?

C

Oh, who cares?

G

And now Iâ€™m standing disheveled at your door

D

Covered in dust and dirt but full of hope

Em

We might never be normal again

D

Might never be normal again, but who cares?

Em

I ask, who cares?

G
