

Home From War
Frightened Rabbit

F C Dm Am Em

F
Here I stand like a soldier home from war
C
With nothing to do but remember the shutter of bombs

Dm
I m sure it never quite goes away
Bb
It never quite goes away, oh

F

Here I sit like a beginner beginning again
C
And all those fuck-ups counted for nothing cause nothing makes sense

Dm
And I am never quite fully awake
Bb
And never completely asleep, yeah

F C F

Iâ€™m walking around like a soldier who s home from war
C
Lost in the foreign landscape I used to know

Dm
Will I ever feel like I belong?
Bb
Will I ever feel like I belong anywhere?

F C Dm Am Em Bb F

Well, here I lie like a lover who isn t in love
C
Who stares at the cracks in the ceiling six feet above

Dm Am
And who knows just how it feels to buckle beneath the weight

Dm
And there s only so much you can take
Bb
There s only so much you can take

C
I might never be normal again
I might never be normal again
Never be normal again
Oh, never be normal again

Dm
But who cares?
I ask, who cares?

Bb

Oh, who cares?

F

And now Iâ€™m standing disheveled at your door

C

Covered in dust and dirt but full of hope

Dm

We might never be normal again

C

Might never be normal again, but who cares?

Dm

I ask, who cares?
