[Verse 1]
Am   C   G   F
I m broken, I m hoping for a reason to keep on going
Am   C   G   F
Doors open and closing, everything seems like slow motion
Am   C   G   F
I ve chosen this moment to stop my self-erosion
Am   C   G   F
I m focused on owning, myself my own opponent

[Pre-Chorus]
Am   C   G   F
But in this moment that is falling apart, I keep thinking
Am   C   G   F
Is the path I ve chosen where I should start I keep sinking?

[Chorus]
Am   C   G   F
I m dying every second I m alive, every second Im alive
Am   C   G   F
I m trying to feed the fire that inside, feed the fire thats inside
Am   C   G   F
I m dying every second I m alive, this life s reflection in my eyes
Dm   Am   C   G
Reminds me the scars made me stronger

I won t go quietly, won t let the past confine me
Am   C   G   F
I don t know why I see what I ve tried to put behind me

[Verse 3]
Am   C
Every second I m alive I m getting closer to my grave
G   F
I ve tried my best to just survive, feels like I m broken every day
Am   C
I m hoping that I make it, I m open but I m vacant
G   F
I m closed inside this basement, time to try to fight to shake it
Am   C
I m shaking and I m waiting, still debating on which way to go
G   F
I m swaying and I m fading, no escaping, still afraid to know
Am   C
Inside my thoughts are racing so I m bracing for a weighted stone
G   F
The world that s on my shoulders that I may just have to change alone
