

Singing Joy To The World
Fruit Bats

The Key Eric Johnson seems to play it in....i think?

Well he got

G Am
Lonely every time a canteen of lights came up
C G Gsus - G

On the Indian Casino Queen Cus heâ€™d loved her from the time sheâ€™d been the
Am C D
waitress at the Mexican place where heâ€™d left his keys

Am G
Sheâ€™d been there smileâ€™n at the lost and found
C /B Am Bm (Bm Bbm Am)
Then he took her to see three dog night they were playinâ€™ at the fairgrounds
Am G Gsus G
Holdinâ€™ hands singin â€™Joy to the Worldâ€™.

G D C
She was way too young
G D Em
But he did not care

A C
He was alright with cashinâ€™ in
A C C(fade)
A few fine moments before his broken heart kicked in

[Riff]

G-Gsus-G (fade)

Well he G Am
died a little bit each time the night came in
C G Gsus G
And the stars fell over Michigan Cus heâ€™d loved her at the ball when he saw her
Am C D
dancing to â€™I Could Never Take the Place of Your Manâ€™.

Am G

Then heâ€™d come over to his usual spot

C Em Bm (Bm Bbm Am)

Soon they were makinâ€™ out at three AM in the empty parking lot

Am G Gsus G

They lay together under the burnt out stars

G D C

She never loved him back

G D Em

It wasnâ€™t even close

A C

But he was fine with just pretend

A C

that it was never gonna end

A C

and it was worth it just to know

A C

A little warmth before the snow
