G#            C            Fm            C#
Out here i can barely see my breath
G#            C            Fm            C#
Surrounded by jealousy and death
G#            C            Fm            C#
I can t be reached, only had one call
G#            C            Fm            C#
Dragged underneath, separate from you all

G#            G#            Eb            Eb

G#            C            Fm            C#
This time i ve lost my own return
G#            C            Fm            C#
In spite of everything i ve learned
G#            C            Fm            C#
I hid my tracks, spit out all my air
G#            C            Fm            C#
Slipped into cracks, stripped of all my cares

G#            G#            Eb            Eb

G#            C            Fm            C#
I m so tired sheep are counting me
G#            C            Fm            C#
No more struggle, no more energy
G#            C            Fm            C#
No more patient and you can write that down
G#            C            Fm            C#
It s all too crazy and i m not sticking round
