My friend Robert and I both figured this out the same day, but not together. This song is Track #2 on the newest CD. It is just such a chillin and groovin track. Joe Lalley first does a little warm-up at the beginng (0:01) and it is just the first half of the Verse. The Riff is only a different tempo of the Verse and there are two little cool variations in there at different time marks. (I put time marks so if you have the CD you can study those points.) Just remember to keep playing and to switch tempos now and then, it just repeats. Anyways, I can t shut up.
