E-----	-----	-----

Am
There s a chair
F C
that sat next to the wall that I leaned on G
in the heat of it all Am
I said a few things
F C
As I stared at the lamp and the bulb was burn out
G
N now your spares were out.

Am F
I can still feel the way the wallpaper peeled
C G
I tore a piece of it off and let it fall to the floor with a Am F C
tear, you left the room it was white like the snow in the globe on G
your dresser

Chorus (2x)

Am F C
i think i left a piece of my heart in your dresser
G
in case you want to start over
Am F
There s the spot, where you said what you said

C G
With you hand on your foot, sittin at the foot of the bed
Am F
There were strong words, strong like the wood of the door frame
C G
You chipped from the day that you moved it
Am C
I could hear you, Its just the light from the window
C G Am
Distractingly casted a peculiar shadow, a tear
F C
You left the room it was white like the snow in the globe
G
on your dresser

Chorus (2x)

Am F C
i think i left a piece of my heart in your dresser
G
in case you want to start over
