C Am
there s a game that s always played

C G
and always won by fools

Em Fmaj7/C
but everyone I know

C G
would rather never play then loose

C Am
there s a place where the innocent stand

C G
proud before the firing squad

Em Fmaj7/C
there s a church at the end of the path

C G
where the sign reads beware of the God

Am
and there s you in the alley

Fmaj7/C
and there s me walking away

C
those three words still hang in the air

G
that I swore I would never say

C
so hold on now just how on a minute

Fmaj7/C
this cars not leaving if you re not in it

Am
you ve no idea how lucky we are

Fmaj7/C
a wound that deep would normally scar

C Am
I heard there was a place where the light

C G
managed to cut through the dark

Em Fmaj7/C
but that was just a story for children

C G
and my chest is just a grave for my heart

C Am
there s a phone that s always ringing
C G
answer and a child will say
Em Fmaj7/C
I d rather take my own life
C G
then give it away

Am
and there s you under the west way
F
for to hide from the rain
C
and I m taking your picture
G
to be sure that I see you again

C
so hold on now just how on a minute
Fmaj7/C
this cars not leaving if you re not in it
Am
you ve no idea how lucky we are
Fmaj7/C
a wound that deep would normally scar

Am
but I ve seen willows holding hands
F
heard birds sing in harmony
C
and as bodies of water rub up to the land
G
the river s mouth is kissing the sea

C
hold on now just how on a minute
Fmaj7/C
this cars not leaving if you re not in it
Am
you ve no idea how lucky we are
Fmaj7/C
a wound that deep would normally scar
