[Verse]

```
        F#
I m a phoenix in the water
   Bbm
a fish that s learnt to fly
          F#
and I ve always been a daughter
     Bbm
but feathers are meant for the sky
         F#
so I m wishing wishing further
          Bbm
for the excitement to arrive
            F#
it s just I d rather be causing the chaos
                      Bbm
than living at the sharp end of this knife
```

[Pre-Chorus]

```
F#            C#
With every small disaster
G#             Bbm
I ll let the waters still
F#       C#                   G#
Take me away to some place real
```

[Chorus]

               F#
Cause they say home is where your heart is G#       Bbm                            C#
set in stone its where you go when you re alone
                            G#
it s where you go to rest your bones
    F#                          G#
it s not just where you lay your head
     Bbm
it s not just where you make your bed
   C#                          G#
As long as we re together does it matter
```

[Verse]

```
            F#
So when I m ready to be bolder
        Bbm
and my cuts have healed with time
F#
comfort will rest on my shoulder
          Bbm
and I ll bury my future behind
      F#
I ll always keep you with me
          Bbm
you ll be always on my mind
                F#
but there s a shining in the shadows
            Bbm
I ll never know unless I try
```

[Pre-Chorus]

```
F#          C#
With every small disaster
G#              Bbm
I ll let the waters still
F#      C#                  G#
Take me away to some place real

[Chorus]

```
              F#
