Intro E A E

Verse

A E
I guess itâ€™s funny how things change
A E
I turn a corner and your life has turned a page
A E B C#m B E
I saw the story in your eyes begin to fade before you hit the ground
C#m B E
I saw you hit the ground

Trying to work out what it means
How can it all come down to lies upon a screen?
How can we lose something weâ€™ve tried so hard to keep out of the lost and found?
The lost and found

Chorus

E A E
So keep your head up in the clouds
A B A
Live tomorrow now
B C#m B E
Run rings â€™round roses til we all fall down
C#m B E
Til we all fall down

Verse

You said you want to move away
Live by the sea and watch the rising of the waves
But donâ€™t feel guilty â€™cause you know Iâ€™m gonna stay
Look at all we found
Look at all we found

Chorus

So keep your head up in the clouds
Live tomorrow now
Run rings â€™round roses til we all fall down

Keep dancing til your last songâ€™s sung
Til your last breathâ€™s done

Run rings â€™round roses til we all fall down

Bridge

B A

And time wonâ€™t slow

B C#m A

Itâ€™s ticking on our shoulders

B C#m B

No one knows, oh, no body knows.

Chorus

So keep your head up in the clouds.

Live tomorrow now

Run rings â€™round roses til we all fall down.

Keep dancing till your last songâ€™s sung.

Til your last breathâ€™s done

Run rings â€™round roses til we all fall down

Til we all fall down.
