VERSE:

D G A D
Just a small request from this human to a god.
G A
Let me ask you a favor that might seem a little odd,
D G A
I m at a loss
G A
I need to cross the ocean wide and I need to do it soon,
G
Like tomorrow afternoon
A
If that s okay,
D G A
Loan me some wings for a day.
D G A
Loan me some wings for a day.

VERSE:

D G A D
They don t need to be Angel s wings, I m sure they re in demand
G A
Something better than a chicken or a penguin would be grand.
D G A
I just can t wait
G A
She s set the date to marry him and it really should be me,

G

Which explains the urgency,

A

I can't delay

D G A

Loan me some wings for a day.

D G A

Loan me some wings for a day.

VERSE:

D

D

I promise I won't use them for a daredevil career,

G

I won't buzz the White House, or race seagulls at the pier

D G A

I won't get caught

G

Doing naughty things with pigeons

A

Or cropdusting in Des Moines

G

I won't run off to join,

A

Cirque de Soleil

D G A

Loan me some wings for a day.

D G A

Loan me some wings for a day.

INSTRUMENTAL: PLAY VERSE CHORDS

D G A

Loan me some wings for a day.

D G A

Loan me some wings for a day.

BREAK:

Em A Em A
I wouldn't ask this of anybody else, I'm sure you sympathize

Em G Em A
Cause you're the one who made those lips, and put the sparkle in her eyes,

G A
It's not your fault I said the things I said

G A
I don't blame you for making me a fool

Em
But with these wings I'll fly right to her side

A
This time I'll follow through

D G A

Ah, c mon God I d do the same for you

D G A D

Just a small request from this human to a god.

G A

Before she throws that last bouquet

D G A

Loan me some wings for a day.

D G A

Loan me some wings for a day.

D G A D

Loan me some wings for a day.
