Intro: Ebm

Ebm

I got a fresh tattoo of a broken heart
You d think I d learn by now but I ain t that smart
C# Ebm
I got a pocket full of nothing, head full of lukewarm beer
Ebm Bbm
I just wanted to make myself feel good
C# G#
Feel like I ve been understood
F# G# C#/F# Ebm
I was wrong, I ve been wrong three times this year

Ebm
I pushed off from shore in this leaky boat
With my only friend, a bottle of whiskey in my coat
C# Ebm
I was going to drown my sorrows, discuss my attitude
Ebm Bbm
I lay down on my back, I started to curse
C# G#
Insulted every planet in the universe
F# G# Ebm
Hey Jupiter, if you re listening, I didn t mean to be that rude

C#

Hey la, la, la, hey la, la, la, hey la, la, la,
Ebm

How hard can it be?

C#

Hey la, la, la, hey la, la, la, hey la, la, la,
Ebm

How hard can it be?

Let me tell you now,

F#

G#

C#/F#

Ebm

I just ran out of whiskey and I m stranded out at sea

Ebm

Now as the light begins to fade the sun disappears
I see a siren singing in a sea of tears

C#

Ebm

I know it s you, I can tell by your hair

Ebm

Bbm

And my pulse begins to quicken as I row through the tide

C#

G#

I want to lay my head down at your side

F#

G#

C#/F#

Ebm

Then you slip into the sea, you re gone, that ain t fair

Ebm

The sea was as black as a pirate s soul
A black velvet bag, a big dark hole

C#

Ebm

Just reflections of the mocking moon above

Ebm

Bbm

Then a shooting star shot across the skies

C#

G#

It was then I began to realize

F#

G#

Ebm

I would give it all away if I could have your love

(Chorus)

Ebm

Now I pulled myself together, had a little chat
With my empty bottle and this little cat

C#

Ebm

He d been hiding, he d been there for a while

Ebm

Bbm

Well I told him how I missed you, how you made me feel

C#

G#

And even though that cat wasn t real

F#

G#

C#/F#

Ebm

It cheered me up and it made me smile

Ebm

I stood up in that boat and I laughed till I cried
I danced a little two-step with my pride

C#

Ebm

Then I thought about jumping in again, I was so alone

Ebm

Bbm

Well you know I couldn t do it cause I m standing here

C#

G#

It may have been the liquor, it may have been the fear

F#

G#

Ebm

Besides how would that cat have got back home?

(Chorus x 2)
