Intro: F#m

F#m

I got a fresh tattoo of a broken heart
You d think I d learn by now but I ain t that smart

E F#m
I got a pocket full of nothing, head full of lukewarm beer

F#m C#m
I just wanted to make myself feel good

E B
Feel like I ve been understood

A B E/F# F#m
I was wrong, I ve been wrong three times this year

F#m

I pushed off from shore in this leaky boat
With my only friend, a bottle of whiskey in my coat

E F#m
I was going to drown my sorrows, discuss my attitude

F#m C#m
I lay down on my back, I started to curse

E B
Insulted every planet in the universe

A B F#m
Hey Jupiter, if you re listening, I didn t mean to be that rude

E

Hey la, la, la, hey la, la, la, hey la, la, la,
F#m

How hard can it be?

E

Hey la, la, la, hey la, la, la, hey la, la, la,
F#m

How hard can it be?

Let me tell you now,

A

B

E/F#

F#m

I just ran out of whiskey and I m stranded out at sea

F#m

Now as the light begins to fade the sun disappears
I see a siren singing in a sea of tears

E

F#m

I know it s you, I can tell by your hair

F#m

C#m

And my pulse begins to quicken as I row through the tide

E

B

I want to lay my head down at your side

A

B

E/F#

F#m

Then you slip into the sea, you re gone, that ain t fair

F#m

The sea was as black as a pirate s soul
A black velvet bag, a big dark hole

E

F#m

Just reflections of the mocking moon above

F#m

C#m

Then a shooting star shot across the skies

E

B

It was then I began to realize

A

B

F#m

I would give it all away if I could have your love

(Chorus)

F#m

Now I pulled myself together, had a little chat
With my empty bottle and this little cat

E

F#m

He d been hiding, he d been there for a while

F#m

C#m

Well I told him how I missed you, how you made me feel

E

B

And even though that cat wasn t real

A

B

E/F# F#m

It cheered me up and it made me smile

F#m

I stood up in that boat and I laughed till I cried
I danced a little two-step with my pride

E

F#m

Then I thought about jumping in again, I was so alone

F#m

C#m

Well you know I couldn t do it cause I m standing here

E

B

It may have been the liquor, it may have been the fear

A

B

F#m

Besides how would that cat have got back home?

(Chorus x 2)
