I was raised on Black and Tans, with Ronnie Drew, and Van the Man
I go off to mass on Sunday and then it s back to the pub on Monday
I ve got a sister Meghan with a Celtic cross tattoo
I ll tell you a few stories and every one of them is true

[[CHORUS]]

C D
My mother s, brother s, sister s, cousin s, auntie s
C D G
Uncle Barney s, father s, brother had a counsin from Killarney

G
Well my great-grandda, and his mates
D G
they tried to make it to the States
G
his great uncle, he was a failure
D G
he got deported off to Australia
C
so they stowed upon a steamer
D on the famous White Star Line
C
I was raised upon these stories
G D
since i was the age of nine

[[CHORUS]]

G

Well my great uncle, he liked the races

G

he liked the dogs and steeplechases

G

his wife, my dear old auntie

D

G

she kept a teashop way, way down in Bantry

C

but he fixed a race in Donegal

and now he s got to hide

C

with the sticky buns and cakes and guns

and whiskey on the side
