Don?t we all want the same thing
Human kind gonna make its own wings
Is every generation same as the last
Or we gonna circle future with the chains of the past

There?s a cold wind blowing
Down two roads to take
Must live the tomorrows
Of the todays we make

And you must make your mark
We're capable of every horror
Once in the dark

Is every generation same as the last
Do we circle future with the chains of the past
