Your brain is on fire

Always stunning you
If you don t reach your dreams
Everything will fall to soon
I will hang around
Reading every world coming from your mouth
There will come a moment
To clean our odds like no one have
And every minute of the waiting

Find a haven to sleep tonight
Will be laden, reaching your side

Still saying my prayers at night
Wishing you like no one has
Remember my favorite moments
Of a store that we never had!
