

I Dont Know Who You Are
Garfunkel and Oates

I Don t Know Who You Are
-----

D
You say hello
Em
And I say hello back
D
You say it s nice to
Em
See me again, crap

D
This conversation just keeps going
Em
Want to get through this without you knowing
D
You can see it in my eyes
Em
My calculating bullshit lies
D
You look at me so appalled
Em D Em
cause I don t recognize you at all

D
Now am I an asshole
Em
Or are you just boring?
D Em
Cause one of these two things must be true
D Em
Am I self absorbed, preoccupied, and shockingly cunty
D Em
Or is there just nothing memorable about you?
G A
Well even if I m arrogant and totally suck
G A
I m still betting on the latter cause you re bland as fuck.

D
I don t know who you are
Em
I don t have a freaking clue
D
So get a catchphrase, get an accent

Em

Fuck your face up with a tattoo

D

Okay, so fine, so now you know

Em

That I don't know, so there you go

D

Em

That you don't even look a little familiar to me

D

Em

And I blame you

D

Em

I blame you

D

I'm willing to bet

Em

This happens to you a lot

D

This can't be the first

Em

Blank stare that you've got

D

You're a sand-filled desert without a mirage

Em

You're a Honda Accord in a parking garage

D

You're camouflage on camouflage

Em

You're a dumb white guy on entourage

D

You've chosen no form of expression

Em

D

Yet expect to make an impression

D

Now am I a shithead

Em

Or are you just blugh?

D

Em

Hey I think that question is pretty fair

D

Em

You're looking at me like I just drop-kicked a baby

D

Em

But I won't remember you anyway so I don't care

G

A

Your overwhelming averageness is such a drag

G

A

So fix the situation or wear a name tag

D

I don't know who you are

Em

Not even a little bit

D

Carry nun-chucks, adopt a black kid

Em

To make people give a shit

D

Okay, so fine, so now you know

Em

That I don t know, so there you go

D

Em

That you don t even look a little familiar to me

D

Em

And I blame you

D

Em

I blame you

D

Em

I blame you

D

Em

I blame you

D

And I blame you
