

Sugar

Garrett Gue

Sugar by Garrett Gue

capo 4

Note: The small d chord is a regular D with the pinkie on the 4th fret of the 5th string.

D D Bm

Well she feels like sugar in the evening

G A

Sugar in the morning time

D D Bm

And when the sun s shining bright she ll get that feeling

G A

A little more sugar might do just fine

D D Bm

I m talking ice cream, cinnamon rolls, an oreo shake and a diet coke

G A

Cus you know you gotta watch your figure

D D Bm

I m talking brown eyes, a cute little nose, a smile that shines like the summer s snow

G A

If this could happen

G A

But I know it never could

G A

Like I know she would taste so good

D D Bm G A

Until the flavor fades away

D D

Well she stays up late

Bm

And wakes up early

G A

Maybe a strawberry swirly in between

D D Bm G A

Cus everybody knows that sleep is surely overrated when you re on caffeine

G A

But I think this untrue

G A

Like I think I m just a fool

D D

And the flavor fades away, fades away

Bm G

Like a finger paint that was left out in the rain

A

It fades away,

D D

Fades away, fades away

Bm G

Like a happy smile as the clouds chase it away

A D D F#m D D F#m

It fades away, fades away, It fades away Fades awaaaaaaaaay

G A

And though it never could

G A

Believe me when I say I would

G E G Gm tacit

But I never really figured how to handle goodbyes too good

D D Bm G A

She fades away, fades away

D D

Fades away, fades away

Bm G

Like a fleeting thought of peaceful destinations

A D D

Fades away, Fades away, fades away

Bm G

On a westbound train with my hopes and expectations

A D

She fades away, fades away
