Intro D

(D)His pulpits A corner
On 19th and Main
(G)His grip on the gospel
His one claim to fame(D)

(D)He hurls fire and brimstone
At the cars passing by
(G)And he offers salvation(D)
(A)For the savior on high(D)

(D)His khakis are tattered
And he aint bathed in weeks
(G)His bout with the bottle
Shows up on his cheeks(D)

(D)He looks like a scarecrow
A sight to behold
(G)As he work for the shepherd(D)
(A)Bringin lambs to the fold(D)

(C)He points to the (G)bible
(D)He holds in his hands
(G)Says I m proof that the (D)good lord
(E)Can save any (G)man

Chorus

(D)Son it ain't what you're drivin
(G)Or the clothes that you wear(D)
(D)Material possessions
(G)Won't matter up there(A)
(D)And someday in heaven
 When the Angels all sing(G)
(D)These rags that I'm wearin
(A)Will be fit for A king(C)(G)(D)
 *(D)

(D)He's fighting a fever
 In spite of the chill
(G)He pulls up his collar
 And he speaks of God's will(D)

(D)His body is weakened
 But his faith is still strong
(G)For he's filled with conviction(D)
(A)For the mission he's on(D)

(C)He knows soon in heaven(G)
(D)He'll be homeless no more
(G)And his work will soon echo(D)
(E)From that far distant shore

Chorus

*(D)And some day in heaven
 When the angels all sing(G)
(D)These rags that I'm wearing
(A)Will be fit for A king(C)(G)(D)
