A farmer's daughter with a gentle hand,
A blooming rose in a bed of sand;
She loved the man who wore a star,
A Texas Ranger known near and far.
So they got married and they had a child.
But times were tough and West was wild.
So it was no surprise the day she learned
That her Texas man would not return
To Lonesome Dove. CHORUS

[3]

She watched her boy grow to a man.
He had an angel's heart and the devil's hand.
He wore his star for all to see.
He was a Texas lawman legacy.
Then one day word blew into town.

It seemed the men that shot his father down
Had robbed a bank in Cherico.
Tho only thing tween them and Mexico
Was Lonesome Dove. (to verse 4)

[4]

The shadows stretched across the land
As the shots rang out down the Rio Grande.
And when the smoke had finally cleared the street,
The men lay at the ranger s feet.
But legend tells to this very day
That shots were comin from an alleyway.
"Though no one knows who held the gun,
There ain t no doubt if you ask someone
In Lonesome Dove. CHORUS
