

That ol' Wind
Garth Brooks

Intro: E C#m A B7 E

She dropped her boy at school on time
C#m
One less worry on her mind
A E B
Now it s off to work and on the radio
E
Comes an old familiar song
C#m
And then the D.J. s voice comes on
A B7 E
And says he s back in town tonight for one last show
E
Her eyes well up with tears
C#m
God could it be it s been ten years
A E B
Since that Autumn night outside the county fair
E
When two strangers shared a night
C#m
And in the darkness found a light
A B7 E
That to this day is still alive and burning there
C#m A B
He asked her twice to come along
C#m A B
They said good-bye at the break of dawn
E
Cause you can t hold back the wind
C#m
If it s meant to be again
A B7 E
Then someday he ll find his way back to her arms

break: A B E

E
The marquee misspelled his name
C#m
And not too many people came
A E B
But that didn t matter to them
E

They laughed and loved all through the night

C#m

And as they faced the morning light

A

B7

E

They found themselves standing there again

C#m

A

B

And he asked her twice to come along

C#m

A

B

They said good-bye at the break of dawn

E

As his bus left out she cried

C#m

With him standing by her side

A

B7

E

That ol' wind had once again found its way home

instrumental break: E C#m A E B

E C#m A B7 E

C#m A E

Someday he ll tell her about the money he hid

C#m

A

E

B

And someday she ll tell him that the boy is his kid

E

For right now they re both in love

C#m

The only thing they re thinkin' of

A

B7

E

Is that they re finally where their hearts have always been ending: repeat instrumental break 3 times and fade out