

Shes So California
Gary Allan

Note: This is as close as I can get it (its pretty close!!!) but there might be a C between the G major to Am chord transition near the end of the verses and in the chorus, I canâ€™t quite decide which way sounds best. Play whatever works for YOUR ears. As near as I can tell, the song is in the key of G.

Intro: Em G Em G

G
She s a warm summer breeze with bleach blonde hair

C
Like a fine red wine she can take you there

Am Em
She s a walk in the sand at sunset

G
She s the top pulled down on the 405

C
She ll take you higher than Humboldt sky

Am
She s an earthquake

Em
And you re the fault line

G Am G D C
So, when you feel the ground start movin around

G Am D
Hold on tight you re in for a ride

Em G
Cause she s so California

C Am D
She s a wild fire out of control headed for ya

G Am Em C
So, when you get burned, don t say I didn t warn ya

D Em G Em G
Cause she s so California

G
She s a black Mercedes on Laurel and Vine

She s a low cut dress
C

She s a Hollywood sign
Am Em

She s a dead head on a Friday night

G Am G D C

Oh, and she s so cool breaking all the rules

G Am D

Rising star, she ll break your heart

Repeat Chorus

[Thanks to Trevor Carlson for tabs]