Everything That Glitters Is Not Gold
GARY ALLEN

Intro   E   G#m   C#m   C#m7   A

             E   A   E
Saw your picture on a poster, in a cafe out in Phoenix

               C#m   B   A
Guess you re still the sweet heart of the rodeo

        E   A   E
As for me and little Casey, we still make the circuit

       C#m   B   A
In a one horse trailer and a mobile home

    F#m   B
And she still asks about you all the time

    F#m   B
And I guess we never even cross your mind

(Chorus)

        E   G#m
But oh sometimes I think about you

       A   E
And the way you used to ride out

        E
In your rhinestones and your sequins

       B
With the sunlight on your hair

        E   G#m
And oh the Crowd will always love you

       A   E
But as for me I ve Come to know

               B   E
Everything that glitters is not gold

```
            E                                    A          E
Well old Red he s getting older, and last Saturday he stumbled

        C#m               B              A
But you know I just Canâ€™t bear to let him go

        E                                A              E
Little Casey she s still growing and she s started asking questions

          C#m             B             A
And there s Certain things a man just doesn t know

    F#m                               B
Her birthday came and you never even Called

    F#m                             B
I guess we never cross your mind at all

          E                 G#m
But oh sometimes I think about you

        A               E
And the way you used to ride out

            E
In your rhinestones and your sequins

        B
With the sunlight on your hair

          E                 G#m
And oh the Crowd will always love you

          A               E
But as for me I ve Come to know

                  B        E
Everything that glitters is not gold

      C#m               G#m             A
Everybody said you d make it big someday

      C#m               G#m           A
And I guess that we were only in your way

        E                     G#m               A      C#m    F#m    E
But someday I m sure your gonna know the cost

          F#m                             B
Cause for everything you win there s something lost
```

        E                        G#m
But oh sometimes I think about you

       A                    E
And the way you used to ride out

        E
In your rhinestones and your sequins

        B
With the sunlight on your hair

         E                        G#m
And oh the Crowd will always love you

        A                    E
But as for me I ve Come to know

                        B        E
Everything that glitters is not gold

A        E                    B  (A capella)
Everything that glitters is not gold

End Chords-  E    G#m  A   E   C#m   B   A  (to fade)
