A#

Could it be the silence

Of a lonely afternoon

Could it be that somewhere in my mind

F#

You found a place to stay

A#

I have tried just everything

To get you from my mind

F#

Spend a lot of time at the park watching children play

(Chorus:)

Am

C

Seems to me that in the sunlight

A#

F

You become as constant as the day

Am

C

In the night when i am sleeping

A#

F

You come through to me like some beautiful garden in the rain

A#

Thought id seen it all with the other girls id seen

F

Though id seen it all through the years I

A#

Where every song i wrote sounded like the blues

A#

Where nothing seemed to matter

F

and there nothing left for me to chose

(Chorus 2:)

Am

C

Then you came into my life

A#

F

Made yourself as constant as the day
