C Bb C Bb
It s cold outside
C Bb C Bb
And the paint s peeling off of my walls
C Bb C Bb
There s a man outside
C Bb C Bb
In a long coat, grey hat, smoking a cigarette

C Bb C Bb
Now the light fades out
C Bb C Bb
And I m wondering what I m doing in a room like this
C Bb C Bb
There s a knock on the door
C Bb C Bb
And just for a second I thought I remembered you

So now I m alone, now I can think for myself
G D F C
About little deals and S.U s, and things that just I don t understand
G D F C
Like a white lie that night or a slight touch at times
G D F C
I don t think I meant anything to you

C Bb C Bb
So I open the door
C Bb C Bb
It s the `friend that I d left in the hallway
C Bb C Bb
Please sit down
C Bb C Bb
A candle lit shadow on a wall near the bed

C Bb C Bb

You know I hate to ask

C Bb C Bb

But, are `friends electric? are they?

C Bb C Bb

mine s broke down

C Bb C Bb

And now I ve no one to love

So I find out your reason for the phone calls and smiles

G D F C

And it hurts and I m lonely and I should never have tried

G D F C

And I missed you tonight, so it s time to leave,

G D F C

You see it meant everything to me
