Intro: G C9 D
The Whole Song : G C9/G7 D

You are the noise in the night
A butterfly in flight the solitary fatal sting
the sunrise in the morning
Pain in my ass
The dew on the grass
*Cake On the kitchen floor

Youre my beautiful eyesore
Youre my beautiful eyesore

You are the garbage in the park
A match in the dark
A pothole in the landing strip
A vacancy in a crowded jeep
Frozen blood in the freezer
Spare *jeans to a beggar
Oil to a rusty door

Youre my beautiful eyesore
Youre my beautiful eyesore

You are the *thinking in the courtroom
A golden-topped mushroom
A silence on the other line
March with some sunshine
A *golden tooth, and a great white
A blind man s first sight

Do I need to say some more
Do I need to say some more

You're my beautiful eyesore
You're my beautiful beautiful beautiful eyesore

Now when I wake up in the afternoon
All I think about is you
Walking my way to the bathroom
And the *jeepney too
You know all them crazy things I do them for you
Try to hypnotize me
But it just won't do
I know I sound silly
Flowing with this tune
But I guess you better listen
Cos we've only got till June

It's been a long time
Since I answered you
And I hope that I could buy some time to be with you
