

I Dreamt Of God
Gavin Clark

From the album Beautiful Skeletons by the genius of Gavin Clark along with Ted Barnes.

Could be played with two guitars,
where one is played with fingerstyle and the other does a small strum and chuck, like in the video.

[Intro]

C

[Chorus 1]

C

I dreamt of God last night

E

Woke up on the side step, in fluorescent light

F

The kerb was kicking in, and I was in full flight

G

C

Oh yeah, I dreamt of God last night

[Verse 1]

C

I counted up the years

E

Later scared my face, on all the acid tears

F

The measure of a man, who grades his life by fears

G

C

Oh yeah, I counted up the years

C C/B

[Verse 2]

Am G F C C/B

Up on the roof, of a concrete block

Am G F C C/B

I tasted it once, I know it don't stop

Am

G

F

C

You're leaving, you're leaving, baby don't speak

G

I lean over the edge

G

And spit in the street

[Chorus 2]

C

I dreamt of God last night

E

Layed out on the red brick, watching satellites

F

Crawl across the sky, and making all things right

G

C

Oh yeah, I dreamt of God last night

[Verse 3]

C

I counted up my days

E

The people Iâ€™ve betrayed, the people I have saved

F

The goodness, and the mercy followed all my ways

C

Oh yeah, I counted up my days

C C/B

[Verse 4]

Am G F C C/B

Often I hear, the blood harmonies

Am G F C C/B

Come in off the coast, come in on the breeze

Am

G

C

Iâ€™m tired, Iâ€™m tired, baby donâ€™t speak

G

My head on the stairs

G

My feet in the street

[Chorus 3]

C

I dreamt of God last night

E

A father to the orphan of eternal life

A love that has no shadow

F

Knows my pain, my plight

G

C

Oh yeah, I dreamt of God last night
