

Be The Bigger Man
Gaz Brookfield

I saw Gaz first at the Tunbridge Wells Forum.
Instantly became a huge follower! I urge anyone to listen to him.

Anyway I was searching everywhere for this tab and couldn't find it so I thought
I'd just tab it myself.

(This is my first tab btw so be wary it may be slightly wrong.... but it sounds right)

Works best if you scroll at pace 3

Capo 7

Intro:

(Small muted strums - watch youtube to get strumming pattern)

| G | Em7 | Cadd9 | D D7 |

Verse 1:

(Single Strum)

G

Sorry son you've got to go to school again today

Em7

Cause if you don't get educated you will never find your way

Cadd9

I know it doesn't seem it's worth it at the moment but it's true

D

D7

These are the best days of your life my boy, would I lie to you?

(full strumming pattern from here)

G

So grab your lunch and text books and get your arse out of the door

Em7

And I'll drop you at the gates where I've dropped you a thousand times before

Cadd9

Do your best to learn some lessons have some fun and make some friends

D

D7

You've only got a few years left and you will thank me in the end

Chorus 1:

Cadd9

I know it's hard

D

But don't cry

G D Cadd9

cause these things are sent to try

Cadd9

D

(Hold D here)

G

I know you find it hard to see but you are always going to be the bigger man

Verse 2:

G cont. into quick muted strum.

(single strum)

G

Things is dad you never see what happens when you go

Em7

I become the primary target for every bully that I know

Cadd9

You always taught me that the best way to avoid a bullies fist

D

D7

Is to ignore them and they ll move along but that s not true is it

(full strumming pattern)

G

So I accept my daily beating with a minimum of fuss

Em7

And accept that fact that that s just how it goes for kids like us

Cadd9

For the moderately intelligent or slightly overweight

D

D7

The best years of your life might not be all that fucking great

Chorus 2:

Cadd9

I know its hard

D

But I wont cry

G

D

Cadd9

cause these things are sent to try

Cadd9

D

(Hold D here)

Although I find it hard to see how I am ever going to be the bigger man

Bridge:

| G D | Cadd9 |

Em7 D

Cadd9

I never stood a chance did I...

Em7 D

Cadd9

The overweight religious kid with four eyes...

Em7 D

Cadd9

Everything that they fed me through...

Em7 D

Cadd9

Made me a bigger man that all of you!

| G | Em7 | Cadd9 | D D7 |

Verse 3:

(single strum)

G
Then one day two decades on I m drinking in the pub

Em7
And the guy who used to kick my arse at school just wonders up

Cadd9
He tries to be all nice to me as if everything had changed

D (Full strumming pattern) D7
I grabbed the fucker by the throat and I carefully explained

G
That a decade of sustained mental and physical abuse

Em7
At the hands of him and all his friends had unsurprisingly produced

Cadd9
A good deal of repressed resentment and the tendency to snap

D D7
No I don t want to be your friend how could you ever have for that?

Chorus 3:

Cadd9
I thought you were hard

D
So don t cry

G D Cadd9
Cause these things are sent to try

Cadd9 D
And that fear you re feeling now is no comparison to how

Cadd9 D
You made me feel at school but I wont stoop top being cruel

Cadd9
And I ll walk away in peace

D
Because I m always going to be the bigger man
