INTRO

B A E E7 A7 B7

E A7
I had me a gal in Tulsa, and I thought she was my own
B7 E
But she up and left me, For a waddy from San Antone
E A7
She didnâ€™t even tell me, That she was leavinâ€™ me
B7 E B7
Now Iâ€™m the lonesomest cowboy, Down in the cow coun-try.

E A7
Got the cowboy blues, Iâ€™m blue as I can be
B7 E
That old lo-bo, howlinâ€™ at the moon, Ainâ€™t got a thing on me
E7 A7
Got a dog-gone lonesome feelinâ€™ That I canâ€™t seem to lose
B7 E
Iâ€™m just the lonesomest cowboy, singinâ€™ the cowboy blues

SOLO

E A7
Iâ€™ll sell my horse and saddle, Then catch me a cattle train
B7 E
Leave my cares behind me, And never come back again
E A7
And if you ever see her, Just tell her this for me
B7 E B7
She made me the lonesomest cowboy, Down in the cow coun-try.

E A7
Got the cowboy blues, Iâ€™m blue as I can be
B7 E
That old lo-bo, howlinâ€™ at the moon, Ainâ€™t got a thing on me
E7 A7
Got a dog-gone lonesome feelinâ€™ That I canâ€™t seem to lose
B7 E
Iâ€™m just the lonesomest cowboy, singinâ€™ the cowboy blues
