written by Gene Clark

E A B E
Somewhere in passage of morning to night
A B E
Figures fade into the wind
E A B E
Delighted in trials and purposely exiled
A B E
Trying to trade the day for the night
E A B E
Shades of evening purple empty space
A B E
Where everybody dreams like there all true
E A B E
Shadows of morning curtains of twilight
A B E
Trying to trade the day for the night
E A
Deep misunderstandings
B E
Have echoed through the years
A B
Judge and you will be judged
E
Wrong or right
E A
I wonder why she still
B E
Stands there her face in tears
A B E
Trying to trade the day for the night

SOLO

E A B E
Regiments of our lives and tigers silver stripes
A B E
Can t pass each other without taking life
E A B E
Believe me I have seen the last fine bird in flight
