Gene Clark Hear The Wind written by Gene Clark

```
[tab]G        D                Em    D C        D                G D
Look around little darlin do you know who I am[/tab]
[tab]G        D                Em    D C D                G D
I m as much your reflection as I am my own man[/tab]
[tab]G        D                Em            D C                D                G D
You need not to defend love life s the house where we live[/tab]
[tab]G        D                Em    D C        D                G D
We cannot see tomorrow    only feel what we give[/tab]
[tab]G        D                Em            D C                D                G D
Put your head on my shoulders    dry the tears from your eyes[/tab]
[tab]G        D                Em    D C                D                G D G
Watch the sun s fading ember    hear the wind    as she cries[/tab]
[tab]Em                            Bm
We talk and hear about lonliness[/tab]
[tab]Am                C                G
The cold blue hunger of the soul[/tab]
[tab]Em                            Bm
But if this world has redemptiveness[/tab]
[tab]Am                            C
Why ever should we be somewhere[/tab]
[tab]D
Where there s nowhere to go[/tab]
[tab]G        D                Em            D C                D                G D
Put your head on my shoulders    dry the tears from your eyes[/tab]
[tab]G        D                Em    D C                D                G D G
Watch the sun s fading ember    hear the wind    as she cries[/tab]
[tab]C        D                G D G
Hear the wind    as she cries[/tab]
