

Spanish Lace
Gene McDaniels

Spanish Lace:Gene McDaniels.
#32 in 1962.

(Capo 1st fret.)

#1.

G D
She was standing there, so beyond compare,
G in Spanish lace.

G D
My heart touched the sky, captivated by,
G
her angel face.

CHORUS:

G C D G
Dancing neath the moon, I soon discovered
G
the new world that lovers always find.

D
When I saw her there, so beyond compare,
G in Spanish lace.

#2.

G D
We danced away the night, until the morning light said,
G
time to go.

G D
I knew we d have to part, such sadness filled my heart,
G
I loved her so.

CHORUS:

G C D G
And now that love has flown..alone, I think of the heartaches that I will have to face.

D
Dreaming of that night, the stars that shone so bright, and
G
Spanish lace.
