Gene Parsons I Must Be A Tree by Gene Parsons/Gib Guilbeau
Clarence White guitar
You are nothing but a piece of driftwood
But I can feel the pain and misery
And in this rut I m stuck with roots a-pining
But I m not a man so I must be a tree
I can t be real, yes I must be a tree
I bloom my spring then comes the fall that withers me
And through this cold I m dormant til you call on me
     F#m
                    D
That s why I know that I must be a tree
Every month you mate our need gets bigger
                   В
My heart has hardened like a knot of wood
And things won t be so shady for you anymore
Someday this tree will branch out towards the other wood
I can t be real, no I must be a tree
 F#m
                                     Е
