Do you feel like your living with a curse and,
are you making it worse and,
can you take anymore?

People don't say what they're coverin' up and
are you staring at a loaded gun?
Are you gonna give me what I'm asking for?

(guitar riff)

Don't go too fast, don't go too slow and break the mold, don't make it last, don't make it great, carry the weight, carry the wound,
is it everything you want and more?

If you can't see it, I can tell you that you're livin' in a weird-out world and you're makin' it up as you go along. Baby won't you give me what I'm askin' for?
