Fly on a Windshield/Broadway Melody of 1974

Intro: alternating between Em and G

 G                   Em
There s something solid forming in the air,
              G                                              Em
And the wall of death is lowered in Times Square.
C           Em
No-one seems to care,
          Am                                    Em
They carry on as if nothing was there.

B/G                         G5
The wind is blowing harder now,
              Gadd9           Em (VII)
Blowing dust into my eyes.
         B/G                      G5
The dust settles on my skin,
              Gadd9             Em (VII)
Making a crust I cannot move in
Em(XII)                          Em/maj7                  Em6
       Em/maj7
And I m hovering like a fly, waiting for the windshield on the freeway.
```

Echoes of the Broadway Everglades,
            Bbm           Db          F
With her mythical madonnas still walking in their shades:
F                                           F+
Lenny Bruce, declares a truce and plays his other hand.
Bbm                              Db            F
Marshall Mcluhan, casual viewin , head buried in the sand.

          Eb
Sirens on the rooftops wailing, but there s no ship sailing.

Groucho, with his movies trailing, stands alone with his punchline
Db   F failing.

(as above except for last line)
Klu Klux Klan serve hot soul food and the band plays In the Mood
The cheerleader waves her cyanide wand, there s a smell of peach blossom and bitter almonde.
Caryl Chessman sniffs the air and leads the parade, he knows in a scent, you can bottle all you made.
There s Howard Hughes in blue suede shoes, smiling at the majorettes smoking Winston Cigarettes.
And as the song and dance begins, the children play at home
                   Bb   C   D
  with needles; needles and pins.
