The old days are gone And they re better left alone

G# Cm
I cannot help you, it s much too late

Oh no not this confused again Oh no not the same mistakes again.
You re taking it all to heart You re taking it all too hard

There s always a reason why it happened
You never never did anything wrong, but it
It just seemed to fall apart
But you re taking it all too hard

Now that it s dark, all of your fears,
Like shadows creeping around.
You re much too scared to look down
And it s lonely out on your own

The old days are gone And they re better left alone
But I still miss you I keep it to myself

Oh no not this confused again Oh no not the same mistakes again
You re taking it all to heart You re taking it all too hard
