You should listen to the song and try that against it. Played at a paced speed it should work!
Also use your fingers it helps!

(chorus is another story I can t see the finger picking working for a beginner but try it on these chords. It works it just sounds strange if not worked on) it gets to, You gotta get in to get out) (remember I have figured this out through the live versions but can be put in the studio one just as easily)
