

Walk Away
Gentleman

Repeat: G#m|F#|D#m|E.

As long as there's life, oh yes we know there is hope we found a way to survive we still a travel the road and we can always decide to find a way how to cope the journey's long and it's wide cause time is longer than rope.

Verse 1

certain things might go pon your nerves and dem do you things what you just don't deserve qwaan tell the world a blessing over curse one day the last will be the first full speed forward you just can't reverse uplift yourself when dem expect the worse hear wha me say ina the verse it's time to leave time to quench your spiritual thirst

Chorus:

nut down the trouble then you walle away you don't have to fight today no you nuh fi do it again nuh do it again you do it from way back when (repeat)

Verse 2

nut down the troubles beg you walle from them trouble making people take no tulle from them new chapter new life new time new friend you a follow your instincts you just can't pretend a brandnew start you will find again nuh make nobody interrupt you this time again one piece of mind clear mind again everything incline again but i shine again.

Verse 3

me nu tell you fi take this honour a fi your life and you can do what you wanna but if you draw fi the guns and the hammer next thing me know you ago draw fi the hammer
take a check and sort out your grammar sentence no right boy you need a few but it you don't stop talk and stammer then you but i talk in front your honour.
