Intro: 40 | 42 | 43 | F | C | G | C F |G (2x)

```
F                       C
Rowers gliding on the river
F                           G
Canadian geese crap along the bank
F                             C
Back wheel of my bike begins to quiver
      F                         G
The chain is wrapped around the crank

F                           C
Old ladies, who must be doggie training
F                             G
Walking throwing balls, chasing all the sheep
          F                         C
While the farmer stands around, and he´s complaining
        F                   G
His mad cows are being put to sleep

        F      C         G           C     F   G
And I´m Pisces fish and the river runs through my soul

53, 52, G
63, 52, C

F                         C
Smoke signals from the brewery
      F                       G
Like someone in there found the lates Pope
            F                         C
In a vat of beer that keeps pumping out with fury
          F                           G
While the church bell ringer´s tangled in his rope

F                         C
There´s a temple on an island
    F                               G
I think of all the Gods and what they feel
            F                   C
You can only find them in the deepest silence
            F                 G
I´ve got to get off of this big wheel

      F      C         G           C     F   G
I´m Pisces fish and the river runs through my soul
      F      C         G           C     F   G
```

I´m Pisces fish and the river runs through my soul

53, 52
G   C
And I´ll be swimming until I can find those waters
G   C
That´s the one unbounded ocean of bliss
G   C
That´s flowing through your parents, sons and daughters
G   C
But still an easy thing for us to miss

F   C
Blades go skimming through the water
          F   G
I hear the coxon shouting his instructions about
            F   C
With this crew oh, it could be a tall order
        F   G
Have we time to sort all these things out?

F   C
Sometimes my life it feels like fiction
          F   G
Some of the days it´s really quite serene
              F   C
I´m a living proof of all life´s contradicions
        F   G
One half´s going where the other half´s just been

        F   C   G   C   F   G
And I´m Pisces fish and the river runs through my soul
      F   C   G   C   F   G
I´m Pisces fish and the river runs through my soul
        F   C   G   C   F   G
I´m Pisces fish and the river runs through my soul
