Waiting for that Day (From the album Listen Without Prejudice)

[Intro]

C C/F C C/F C C/F C C/F C C/F C C/F

So every day I see you in some other face They crack a smile, talk a while and
C C/F C

Try to take your place My memory serves me far too well
C/F C C/F C C/F

(Verses continue with same C C/F sequences)

I just sit here on this mountain thinking to myself
You re a fool boy Why don t you go down
Find somebody Find somebody else My memory serves me far too well

It s not as though we just broke up It s not as though it was yesterday
G F G F

But something I just can t explain Something in me needs this pain
Bm F C/F

I know I ll never see your face again C mon now I ve got to be strong now
(C C/F pattern starts again here)

Now everybody s talking about this new decade
Like you say the magic numbers
Then just say goodbye to
The stupid mistakes you made
Oh my memory serves me far too well

Don t you know that
The years will come and go
Some of us will change our lives
Some of us still have nothing to show
Nothing baby
But memories

And if these wounds They are self-inflicted
I don t really know How my poor heart could have protected me
But if I have to carry this pain If you will not share the blame
I deserve to see your face again
C mon now You don t have to be so strong now Come back
