

All Behind You Now
George Strait

G                    C                    G
Leavin me behind is all behind you now
          Am                    D                    C    G
It s plain to see that you re for good over me
D   G                                    C   G
You ve gotta whole new life ahead of you
                                  Am
You did what you lived to do
                  D                    G
And I m all behind you now

C
And I ll be behind you always
                                  G
Should you every be a yesterday
                                  Am
Though it tears me up to know deep down
          D                    G
I m all behind you now

G                    C                    G
You re comin back my way will come my way again
          Am                    D                    C    G
I ll never be what I was with you and me
D    G                                    C                    G
And I don t know who or where your goin to
                                  Am
But you did what you lived to do
                  D                    G
And I m all behind you now

C
And I ll be behind you always
                                  G
Should you every be a yesterday
                                  Am
Though it tears me up to know deep down
          D                    G
I m all behind you now

Am

Yeah it tears me up to know deep down

D

G

I m all behind you now
